CONCILIATION AGREEMENT

This compromise Conciliation Agreement is entered into by and between the South Carolina Human Affairs Commission (hereinafter "Commission"), on behalf of the Carolina (hereinafter "Complainant"), versus Johns Island Rural Housing et.al. (hereinafter "Respondent").

WHEREAS, a verified complaint was filed on March 28,2019 by Complainant against Respondent alleging a violation of the South Carolina Fair Housing Law and dual-filed with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) under the Federal Fair Housing Act, as amended.

I. CASE SYNOPSIS

The Complainant alleged that the Respondent subjected her to discriminatory terms and conditions, intimidation, refused to negotiate rental, and denied her request for reasonable accommodations. The Complainant stated that the Respondent is aware of her disability and knows that she needs to be allowed to remain in the two-bedroom apartment. Instead, the Complainant said as of February 2019, the Respondent is forcing her to either move to a one-bedroom apartment or vacate the subject property. The Complainant said she needs the second bedroom because she requires a live-in caregiver to be with her especially at night to assist her if she has trouble while trying to sleep due to her disability. The Complainant said she was served with a Rule to Vacate Notification dated March 25, 2019. The Complainant believes she is being discriminated against by the Respondent because of her disability.

Respondent denies having discriminated against Complainant, but agrees to settle the claims in the
